

FEBRUARY 2007

Bacon's

FOODSERVICE

3397

{ Briefs }

▲ Tully's Coffee Corp. launched a line of healthy and energizing yerba maté beverages in partnership with Guayaki, a provider of certified organic and fairly traded yerba maté.

Handcrafted from yerba maté tree leaves sustainably harvested in the rainforests of Paraguay, Argentina and Brazil, Guayaki yerba maté is nourishing and naturally-caffeinated. New Tully's menu items with yerba maté include teas, shakes and mocha beverages. Tully's Coffee Corp., Seattle / www.tullys.com; Guayaki, Sebastopol, Calif. / www.guayaki.com

✓ Pacific Natural Foods introduced 8-ounce single-serving Soymilk and 32-ounce Pacific Soy Blenders for foodservice. Great for kids and adults looking for a healthy alternative to dairy beverages or who are lactose intolerant, the grab-and-go individual serving of Soymilk is enriched with calcium and vitamins A and D, requires no refrigeration, and is available in three flavors: plain, chocolate and vanilla. Pacific Foods, Tualatin, Ore. / www.pacificfoods.com

▲ McDonald's introduced a new chicken sandwich called the Honey Mustard Snack Wrap. The new sandwich, intended to complement its Ranch Snack Wrap, will be made with either grilled or crispy chicken, cheddar jack cheese, lettuce and a honey-mustard sauce. It will be offered at $1.29 for a promotional period at participating McDonald's restaurants. McDonald's Corp., Oak Brook, Ill. / www.mcdonalds.com